On December 4, 2014, United States Magistrate Judge Suzanne Mitchell issued a Report and Recommendation, recommending that the acting commissioner's final decision denying plaintiff's applications for disability insurance and supplemental security income benefits be reversed and the matter remanded for further proceedings. Magistrate Judge Mitchell advised the parties of their right to object to the Report and Recommendation by December 24, 2014 and further advised that failure to make timely objection waives their right to appellate review of both factual and legal issues therein contained.

Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation issued by United States Magistrate Judge Suzanne Mitchell on December 4, 2014 is ACCEPTED, ADOPTED and AFFIRMED. The final decision of defendant, Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of the Social Security Administration is REVERSED, and this matter is REMANDED to the defendant for further administrative proceedings pursuant to sentence four of § 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). Judgment shall issue forthwith.
